PTE Academic is a computer-based international English language test for non-native speakers who want to study at institutions where English is the main language of instruction.

The test will accurately measure your Listening, Reading, Speaking and Writing skills with question types that reflect how language is actually used in an academic environment. Test takers find PTE Academic an interesting and engaging way to demonstrate their English language skills to international institutions. You will too.

PTE Academic is endorsed by Graduate Management Admission Council® (GMAC®), the owners of the Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT®).
